Travel Insurance Benefit

Summary of the New Travel Insurance Benefit

Purposeful Journeys will now offer Cancel-For-Any-Reason (CFAR) NTA Travel Protect Insurance for about the cost of Basic NTA Travel Protection. The major difference in these two policies is that the Basic plan offers 100% reimbursement for specific, enumerated events and circumstances as explicitly set forth in the policy. The CFAR plan covers all events enumerated in the Basic plan, but also includes coverage for pre-existing conditions and literally any reason that leads you to cancel your journey. If you cancel as a result of a pre-existing condition or for any reason not covered in the basic plan, you will be reimbursed for 75% of your journey cost upon a successful claim.

To be eligible for this benefit, Purposeful Journeys MUST purchase travel insurance on your behalf. Once you submit your application Purposeful Journeys will provide a specific quote based on the cost of your journey. However, you can expect a quote that will save you 35-40% off the list price for a Cancel-For-Any-Reason (CFAR) NTA Travel Protect Insurance policy.

Background

Purposeful Journeys is offering this new travel insurance benefit to solve future problems based on experiences of the past faced by both Purposeful Journeys and fellow travelers. Basic travel insurance policies, no matter the carrier, do not cover worldwide economic shutdowns due to global pandemics or fear of travel such as has been the case for many after the events in Israel following October 7, 2023.

Purposeful Journeys will always seek to postpone, reschedule, or adjust itineraries, and never cancel a journey. A CFAR travel insurance policy offers peace of mind to a traveler who simply wants to cancel their journey instead of traveling to a different destination on different dates.

Our New Application Process

Our journey application process has changed. We now offer Cancel-For-Any-Reason (CFAR) travel insurance for about the cost of Basic travel insurance. We no longer collect any deposit at the time you submit your application. We do require a decision on travel insurance to complete your application.

Your application will not be deemed complete until you have either declined to purchase NTA Travel Connect travel insurance or paid your travel insurance invoice. Once you complete your application form, you will receive a quote from Purposeful Journeys for CFAR travel insurance. Your quote will reflect the cost of a CFAR policy for about the cost of Basic Travel insurance. You will also receive a more detailed explanation about NTA Travel Protect travel insurance. By using this process Purposeful Journeys can guarantee that fellow travelers purchase their CFAR travel insurance policy within the 14-day window allotted for purchasing CFAR travel insurance. You may also decline your purchase of travel insurance.

We are delighted you are taking the step of submitting your application to become a member of a journey with us. We look forward to notifying you of your acceptance as a fellow traveler.
